Osaple

Writes

Chief Osaple, from his Sacramento mountain retreat, writes the Fair Association that he will be personally responsible for the finest pageant ever seen, on Osaple night.

El Paso Fall Fair, Oct. 29-Nov. 6

As an El Pasoan you do what you can to make the coming Fair a Success—That's Fair Enough.

MESILLA BOY MOST SERIOUSLY BURNED

Had Jumped in Hot Ashes in Bare Feet; Events at the College.

Agricultural College, N. M., Sept. 7.—Charlie Lafferty, while playing in the back yard, jumped barefoot into a bed of ashes which he thought to be cold, but which were as hot as live coals. The little fellow began to scream and jump up and down, but did not have the presence of mind to get out of them till his sister ran and lifted him out. The skin had burned until the flesh was bare on the soles of his feet. Dr. Sexton was called from Las Cruces to attend him, and stated that the patient must not walk for six weeks. George Heide, a secretary at the Y. M. C. A. in El Paso, visited his alma mater for the purpose of addressing the Y. M. C. A. members here. The next big event among college people will be the president's reception to the students at his residence in Mesilla Park Friday night. The Garrison home is fully completed. Elsworth Bloodgood, of Kingston, N. M., visited a few days with his mother, Mrs. O. A. Bloodgood, of College Row, after a business trip to El Paso, and before his return to his home. Mr. Bloodgood is a prominent cattleman in the Black Range district in Sierra county.

Is your health impaired?

Can you take the part in the daily battles of life that you could at one time—can you, with weakened vital forces, hope to attain the success that is your natural lot? There is no better assistance to health than

Pabst Extract

The Best Tonic

when you are worn out by business cares. Combining in correct proportions the tissue-building qualities of rich barley malt and the tonic properties of choicest hops, it stimulates every function of the body in a perfectly natural way and relieves those suffering from vital exhaustion, loss of appetite, nervousness and general debility.

The United States Government specifically classifies Pabst Extract as an article of medicine—not an alcoholic beverage.

Order a dozen bottles from your local druggist. Insist upon it being Pabst.

Offices

For Rent In New Herald Building

Janitor service is furnished together with all the incidental requirements that help to make an office building more comfortable than the ordinary office can be without these requisites.

LOCATION—located in the very heart of the business center where all street cars pass its doors, well advertised, large signs on all sides of the building, and immense electric signs on tower show day and night where The Herald Building can be found. This one feature is worth money to any business man, to be in a building that can be located without the assistance of a city directory and one or two policemen.

REMEMBER, while you know where your office is located, strangers and others must find it. Therefore it is good policy to be where you can be found when people want to do business with you. Now-a-days the average person will not hunt long, he will do business elsewhere.

MAY DONATE PARK SITE TO THE CITY

Move on Foot to Have Athletic Park Given for a Playground.

Athletic Park, formerly used for a baseball ground, unoccupied for the past two years, may be converted into another south side park similar to the beautiful little second ward park at the corner of Park and Fifth streets.

Z. T. White, one of the members of a local stock company which owns the park, has offered to donate his interest to the city if the other members of the company would do likewise. They are R. C. Lightbody, George Look, Park W. Pittman, Juan S. Hart, M. C. Edwards, and W. H. Long, and an effort is to be made to have them donate this property to the city for park purposes.

MOTORCYCLIST HITS DOG; BREAKS LEG

A stray pup and a motorcycle were the undoing of Joe Burrus, a machinist employed at the G. H. & S. A. shops Wednesday morning. Joe was riding his motorcycle to town Wednesday morning, as usual, from near Ysleta, where he lives. The dog dived in front of the machine and Joe dived over the steering gear. His left leg was broken in the fall and the machine badly demolished. The dog was uninjured. Burrus was brought to El Paso, where his injuries were dressed.

WHY BRUNSWIG SURRENDERED HIS SON

Thought Welfare of Child Should Be Considered Before Feelings of Parent, Hence Allowed Mother To Have Him.

Attorney S. H. London, representing Felix Brunswick, on the case involving possession of Alexander Ferdinand Brunswick, the 3 year old son of Mr. Brunswick and Mrs. Pauline Cohen Elchel, his divorced wife, takes exception to the sentence that the money consideration in the case had any connection with the care and custody of the child.

Mr. London Wednesday produced the agreement upon which the decree of Tuesday by Judge Walthall, was based, which states in part:

"In consideration of the sum of $2000 to be paid by Mrs. Pauline Cohen Elchel to Felix Brunswick, to reimburse him for costs and expenses incurred and the release of certain property to Mrs. Elchel, upon which he holds a lien."

The property referred to is described as being the south eight feet of lot 15, and lots 19 and 20, block 73, Campbell's addition to El Paso.

Mr. London denies positively that the money consideration had anything to do with the child, as Mr. Brunswick had come to the conclusion that it would be better for the child to be in the custody of either parent the entire time, as yearly trips across the red neck would have to be made, as Mr. Brunswick resides in Paris, France, and this would interrupt the attendance of the child at school, and divert his attention from his studies.

That Mr. Brunswick would have been willing to pay $5000 for the care and custody of the child until he was 14 years of age is stated by Mr. London, who says he made that offer a week ago to Mrs. Elchel.

Mr. London further states that Mr. Brunswick decided that if he could not have the custody of the child the entire time, that he would be willing to sacrifice his feelings in the matter and let Mrs. Elchel have the custody of the child as he believed the welfare of the boy to be of greater importance than the feelings of either parent.

DOUGLAS GOLFER WEDS.

Hugh T. Cuthbert, the crack golfer of Douglas, Ariz., was here Wednesday en route to London. Cuthbert is to be married on September 14, to Miss Lucy Bishop Smith. He met Miss Smith three years ago in Douglas, when she was the guest of Mrs. George B. Lee during the winter season. They will return to Douglas by way of Mexico City, where they will spend a week during the centennial celebration.

Dandruff Means Baldness

Wise people say there is nothing sure in this world but death and taxes. But that dandruff means baldness is just as sure as either death or taxes, and every physician knows it. Dandruff is caused by a germ—a vicious, persistent, tenacious germ—that up to the discovery of one of the world's greatest scientists, was supposed to be unkillable. That discovery is called Parisian Sage, and Kelly & Pollard, the druggists, who are the agent in El Paso, guarantee it to kill every dandruff germ and remove all traces of dandruff in two weeks or money back.

But Parisian Sage is more than a dandruff killer; it is guaranteed to stop falling hair, itching of the scalp, and all diseases of the hair and scalp. It contains just enough of sage properly combined with other ingredients to make any woman's or man's hair grow luxuriantly. It makes everybody's hair, including hair change to soft, lustrous, and beautiful hair. Kelly & Pollard sell it at 50 cents a bottle, or you can get it direct from the American makers, The Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., at the same price, by express, all charges prepaid. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

EL PASO FRAT MEN ORGANIZE SOCIETY

Permanent Association of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Organized Tuesday Night.

Local members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon college fraternity enjoyed a banquet at the Zeiger hotel Tuesday night. From 9 o'clock until 11 the flow of college anecdotes and jokes did not cease for a moment and the men could not compete with the wit and humor displayed upon every side.

At 11 o'clock the toastmaster, Ballard Caldwell, began the regular list of toasts, and after discussion, introduced Mr. Robertson, of El Paso, who spoke in that chapter and the different features of Cornell life. Mr. Nichols then spoke of Iowa State college, where he was a charter member of the chapter.

Other Speakers. Then Mr. Croom spoke of S. A. E. in the south. His general spirit of good fellowship and especially of the chapter at the university of Virginia. Philip Caldwell spoke of life at West Point; Clyde Teague proposed a toast to the wives of the members present and to all S. A. E. sisters in the city, while Juan Smith, of Texas, and Thornton Hardie spoke of various phases of chapter life at the university of Texas. The round of toasts was closed by Rev. R. T. Hanks, of Calvary Baptist church, from Howard college, Alabama. He recounted tales of his football career in the good old days, when it was a free for all fight, told numerous amusing stories and closed by suggesting that the local members be organized into an association.

Organization Formed. Acting upon the suggestion, an organization was perfected, with Rev. Mr. Hanks as president, and Mr. Croom as secretary and treasurer. The association will hold a dinner on the second Tuesday of each month at one of the El Paso hotels, by bringing the members into closer communication, to transact all necessary business and to aid the chapter at Austin, Texas.

It is expected that every member of the fraternity in El Paso will attend these meetings and will make his address known to Mr. Croom, who is in the office of Jno. L. Dyer.

After going through part of the ritual which has been used to close the meetings of the fraternity ever since it was founded at the university of Alabama in 1856, the gathering moved to the lobby, where the fraternity yell, "Phi Alpha," brought a policeman around to inquire what tribe of Indians had broken loose.

Many Members Present. The members of the association are: Rev. R. T. Hanks, Calvary Baptist church, Howard college; M. W. Stanton, Georgia Agricultural college; R. V. Bowden, Cumberland university; G. W. Croom, university of Virginia; Ballard Caldwell, university of Texas; G. C. Robertson, chemical engineer, Cornell; S. S. Nichols, superintendent El Paso Gas company, Iowa State college; J. R. White, chief engineer Stone-Webster company, university of Texas; L. E. Reynard, city fire marshal, Louisiana university; R. J. Owen, civil engineer, Kentucky Military institute; Grover Smith, El Paso Ice company, university of Texas; Clyde Teague, City National bank, university of Texas; H. W. Lockwood, land, State National bank, university of Texas; R. Lester, night clerk at Zeiger, Cumberland university; Juan Smith, university of Texas; Philip Caldwell, Virginia Military institute; Thornton Hardie, university of Texas.

PENITENTIARY BILL IS STILL UNPASSED

Senate and House Fail to Agree on Measure and It Goes to Committee.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 7.—The penitentiary bill reached the house from the senate this morning. The senate had amended the bill by substituting the senate measure for that of the house. Vaughan moved that the house do not concur in the senate amendment. After a debate the motion was adopted. It also provided that the senate name a free conference committee. The senate was notified and named its members for the committee. The house passed the house penitentiary bill, 74 to 18. The senate appointed a committee of seven to confer with the house committee, and the house recessed to six this afternoon. The original committee will now confer again on the prison measure, the old members having been appointed.

VALUABLE DEEDS LOST AT STATION

Big Reward Offered for Return of Suitcase Lost at Union Station.

Five hundred dollars is what Tom Rogers, of Corona, N. M., will pay to the person who locates a suitcase which he says he lost at the union station on the evening of Labor day. He stopped at the Grand Central hotel and accompanied by Mr. McCoy, proprietor of that hotel, went to the station late in the afternoon. Just where he lost the suitcase Mr. Rogers is not certain, but he says it disappeared at the union station. The suit case contained valuable deeds and other things of value and Mr. Rogers wants it back so bad that he is willing to pay $500 to the person who finds it. Depot officials have been enlisted in the search for the suit case, but nothing has been learned regarding it.

POLICE ASKED FOR RECORD OF RICHARD HARRIS

A request for information as to the local record of Richard Harris has been received by chief of police Ben Jenkins from New York city police officials. Harris was arrested in Detroit, Mich., robbed in El Paso 14 years ago. Considerable jewelry which was in the store at the time of the robbery, is said to have been found in Harris's possession and he was returned to El Paso for trial. He gave a $1500 bond, which he jumped, and the case was later dismissed owing to insufficient evidence.

Harris's arrest in Detroit occurred during the term of office of sheriff J. H. Boone. Chief of police Jenkins was deputy sheriff at the time and placed Harris in jail in El Paso.

MOVING STOCK.

"The man who runs the general store is having bargain sales and doing a big business among the summer boarders."

"Yes, they were just dying for excitement. Two ladies actually fought over a remnant grindstone the other day."

IT WAS. "My wife was so angry this morning Her maid upset her bottle of hair golden bleach all over the place."

That was a straightforward disaster, at any event. "What do you mean by straightforward?" "Wasn't it a dire wrecked affair?"

J. J. HAD IT. He (at breakfast next morning)—They say we are going to have an early Fall this year, my dear.

She (frightfully)—Judging from the pole down stairs when you came in at 2 this morning, I should say you had had a STRICTLY TRUE. "Why do you call this a marriage in high life? These people are not in society."

No, but they were married in a balloon ascension.

MEN OF MONEY? "She says she could have married millions in her youth."

Then her forbearance is more remarkable than I thought. She only married five or six."

APPLIED LEARNING. The Absent-Minded Professor—My tailor has put one button too many on my vest. I must cut it off.

That's funny; now there's a buttonhole too many. What's the use of arithmetic?

LIKED THE BREED. Roy—Another oxall, please. Butcher—Did your mother like the last one she had?

Yes—Yes, and she says she wants this one off the same ox, please!

WANTED A WINNER. Indignant Diner—Say, waiter, that lobster is without one claw. How's that?

Walter—You see, sir, they're so fresh, these lobsters, they fight with each other in the pantry.

Not a Police Case. Harold (proudly)—Yes, old man my portrait is in all the newspapers.

Herbert (meaningly)—Is it? What were you cured of?

BY THE SEA. Jarge (at his first view of the sea)—It's wunnerful wot a lot of water there be.

Giffs (who has been before)—Yes, an' we can't see more'n half of it from here.

First Clubman—What have you lost, sir? Can I help you? Second Clubman—I've lost some taffee. First Clubman—Taffee? What rot! Second Clubman—Yes, but my teeth are in it.

ROMANTIC PROPOSAL.

"We used to be sweethearts when we were kids," said the man. "We did," said the maid.

"Since then I have been divorced three times. And you?" "Twice."

"Well, now that we happen to be unmarried simultaneously, suppose we hitch up."

A BUSINESS PROBLEM. "I don't know about taking young Biffins in with us on this work."

"Why not? He is such a promising young man."

"That's just it. There's a risk in taking a promising man into a paying enterprise."

THE TALE OF TWO FAILURES. Ugly Man—I married for beauty.

Sarcastic Man—You remind me of a friend of mine who married for money.

Ugly Man—How's that? Sarcastic Man—He didn't get it.
